

God Blesses His People in
All Circumstances

Romans 8:28-30

- And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified. (Romans 8:28-30)

- I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. (v. 18)

- Five times I received from the Jews the 40 lashes minus one. Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked...I have been in danger from rivers, in danger from bandits, in danger from my own countrymen, in danger from Gentiles; in danger in the city, in danger in the country, in danger at sea; and in danger from false brothers...I have known hunger and thirst and have often gone without food; I have been cold and naked. (2 Corinthians 11:24-27)

- And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. (v. 28)

- Don't be afraid. Am I in the place of God? You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives. So then, don't be afraid. I will provide for you and your children. (Genesis 50:19-21)

- And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. (v. 28)

- I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. (v. 18)

- Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything. (James 1:2-4)

- And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. (v. 28)

- 1. Who is Jesus Christ to you?

- 1. Who is Jesus Christ to you?
- 2. Does your daily life show that you have a relationship with Him?

- 1. Who is Jesus Christ to you?
- 2. Does your daily life show that you have a relationship with Him?
- 3. If not, why not? What is missing in your relationship with Him?

- What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? (Romans 8:31, 32)
